PARIS TEACHER MENTIONED IN CLAYHOLE TRIAL

Mrs. Esther Stone, teacher in the Paris public schools, admitted when questioned that she is the Mrs. Stone referred to by lawyers in the Clayhole trial. Interception of her mail caused the indictment of Mitchell S. Crane, Republican candidate for State Senator from Breathitt county at the last election, and for his subsequent jail sentence at Frankfort.

The details of this affair were brought to light by a question asked by Ryland C. Musick, attorney for the defense. Attorney Musick asked Tom Centers, a witness, if he was at the penitentiary in Frankfort for counterfeiting "at the same time Mitch Crane was."

Mrs. Stone stated that the affair grew out of Crane's attempt to prevent her appointment as postmaster of Jackson in 1902. Several letters which were directed to her from persons who were interested in her appointment, she declared, failed to reach her, and as a result of this she states that the postal authorities conducted an investigation which revealed that the several letters mentioned in the indictment returned by the Federal Grand Jury March 13, 1902, were intercepted by Crane. Mrs. Stone was at that time a resident of Jackson and prominent in Breathitt county politics.

FIRES AT CYNTHIANA

Fire destroyed three barns and outhouses on Elmhurst avenue in Cynthiana late Friday afternoon. The fire originated in the barn of Arthur Box, where barley straw had been stored and is thought to have been caused by spontaneous combustion. The flames burst from the loft before the fire was discovered and spread to the other buildings and the barn of Mrs. Henry Parish and Arthur Talbot, both of which were destroyed. There was a high east wind and by heroic efforts the firemen prevented the flames from reaching the residences. The loss is estimated at about $4,000. Mr. Box and Mrs. Parish carried some insurance.

RELIGIOUS

A Resume of Events in Religious Circles For Present and Future

The revival at the Paris Baptist church, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Arthur Fox, and Singing Evangelists Schofield and wife, continues to grow in interest, as attested by the large crowds at each service. Last Friday night a large delegation from the Central Baptist church, in Winchester, attended the services.

—Mr. Paul Harris, of Louisville, will lead the prayer meeting service at the Presbyterian church Wednesday evening. Mr. Harris will be in Paris in the interest of the $1,000,000 Christian Educational Campaign. He will explain the objects of this campaign at this meeting. The elders and deacons of the church will have a joint meeting after prayer meeting. A full attendance is desired.

—The Millersburg Christian church has secured the services of Rev. L. E. Sellers, of Harrodsburg, to assist the pastor, Rev. G. W. Nutter, in a revival meeting to begin in October. Dr. Sellers was once an evangelist. The church members are congratulating themselves upon securing Rev. Mr. Sellers.

—Rev. R. E. Boggs, blind evangelist, addressed a large audience on the street Saturday afternoon, and Saturday night, on the subject, "Golden Gems of Truth."

—The Men's Bible classes of the Richmond, Winchester and North Middletown Christian churches united in a picnic held in the grove of the Forest Grove church, near Winchester. Following discussion of the day's lesson, the Lord's Supper was administered, and a lunch was served, each one furnishing his own lunch.

—Rev. J. Ernest Thacker has been secured to conduct a revival meeting in the Paris Presbyterian church, beginning October 29. Dr. Thacker is one of the best-known evangelists of the Southern Presbyterian church. He is well-known in the Bluegrass region, having held meetings in several of the neighboring cities. Under his able presentation of the gospel the community as well as the congregation of the Presbyterian church will look forward to a great religious awakening.

PRESBYTERIAN CAMPAIGN FOR CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR

Dr. R. T. Gillispie, chairman of the United Commission in charge of the Presbyterian movement for Christian education, announced the apportionment of the $1,000,000 which is to be subscribed by the northern and southern churches of that denomination. Under the agreement reached by the commission Centre College will receive $300,000; Kentucky College for Women, $200,000; Witherspoon College $50,000; Pikeville College $50,000; Lee's Collegiate Institute $30,000; Matthew T. Scott Jr., Academy $30,000; Sayre School for girls $5,000, and the Presbyterian Orphanage at Anchorage $35,000.

S. W. McGill, director of the work, called attention to the scope of this movement. "It will be seen," he said, "that this will cover every branch of our church's educational activity. We have the seminary for training young men for the ministry, the colleges for both men and women, the academy for preparatory work and our mountain schools." Mr. Garrett S. Jefferson, of the Paris church is looking after the advertising end for Bourbon county.

BOURBON GARDEN CLUB

One of the most interesting meetings of the Bourbon County Garden Club was the one recently held at the home of Mrs. George Williams Clay, on East Seventh street.

Mrs. Frederick A. Wallis gave an interesting talk on "The Harmony of Flower and Vase," while the "Color Combinations for Outdoor Planting," was given by Dr. Martha Petree. Miss Nell Buckner told of the culture of phlox, so popular in this locality, and Miss Virginia Wetherall read a pleasing selection. A general discussion followed.

The Garden Club has for several weeks been holding flower sales each Saturday for the benefit of the new Community House. It was announced at this meeting that the sum of $90 had been raised, which will be used in the purchase of furniture.

The flower exhibit at the meeting was most attractive, and the ribbons were awarded as follows: For specimen, a cluster of snap dragons, to Mrs. B. M. Renick; for arrangement, a vase of Japanese iris, to Mrs. Virgil Gaitskill.

BOURBON CIRCUIT COURT

On account of the meeting of the State Bar Association which several members of the local bar desired to attend Judge Dedman adjourned Court from Thursday to nine o'clock yesterday morning, at which time the petit juries reported.

The case of a young white boy charged with burglarizing the L. & N. station at Shawhan was taken up: The boy protested actual participation in the theft and asked to be given a chance to do better. He stated he could get employment on a farm, and promised to keep away from bad associates. He was a manly, innocent-looking young fellow, and made such an impression on the Court that he was given another chance. He reported to the Court yesterday that he had secured employment on a farm and would "go straight" in the future.

Two cases were disposed of yesterday, and a large amount of other business transacted. In the case of Chas. Calloway, charged with having a moonshine still in his possession, the jury returned a verdict finding him "not guilty." John Thomas, charged with breaking into a freight car on the Louisville & Nashville railroad, was found guilty and given a sentence of one year in the Frankfort Reformatory.

HOSPITAL UNIT HAVE A FINE REUNION

More than eighty member of the Base Hospital Unit No. 40, known as the Barrow Unit, gathered Friday at the home of Louis Haggin, six miles from Lexington, for their annual reunion, and passed a very pleasant day, in a program of pleasing features. The entertainment program was in charge of Harrison Scott, Gordon Hunt and Reed Wilson.

The trip was made to the Haggin estate in automobiles. Lunch was served under canvas at one o'clock on the grounds of the estate. Among those who attended were the following from Bourbon county, former members of the Unit: Baldwin Woods, Douglas Clay, Clarence Whaley, of Paris; Marion Thomas, Herbert Sladd and Emile Buchanan, of North Middletown.

SOMETHING EXTRA

At the Bourbon Gun Club's regular shoot tomorrow (Wednesday) afternoon, June 28, something worth while will be put up to shoot for—a gallon thermomix jar, donated by one of our club members, William Ardery. Now boys, we want to ask this favor of you. Please come early, as we want to get through with this trophy race, and then shoot some doubles, so that the boys that want to shoot doubles in the State Shoot, can get some practice. Visitors welcome. Remember the State Shoot, July 18-19-20 at Alfred Clay's Hill Top Gun Club Grounds. RUDOLPH DAVIS, Sect.

ATTEND MILLERS' CONVENTION AT LEXINGTON

Messrs. B. M. Renick and Hugh I. Brent, of the Paris Milling Co., attended the all-day annual meeting of the Central Kentucky Millers' Association held Friday at the Phoenix Hotel, in Lexington, with about sixty members in attendance.

The meeting was given over to discussion of time of threshing, the probable wheat yield in the United States, the world situation in grain production, and the prospects for the local wheat crop. The reports on the barley crop for Kentucky were that there will be a good yield of that grain this year, but that the rye is not so good, and the yield would be below the average. The new crop will not affect prices either of the grain or flour, it was asserted, as wheat has been on the decline for some time in anticipation.

The following officers were elected: President, Wm. Anderson, of Danville; vice-president, S. M. Long, of Shelbyville; executive secretary, John D. Allen, of Lexington.

CARD OF THANKS

We take this means of extending our heartfelt thanks to the good friends and neighbors who showed us so many kindnesses in the illness and death of our beloved husband and father, Robert Sadler. THURSDAY'S GAMES

Paris at Cynthiana.
Lexington at Winchester.
Maysville at Mt. Sterling.

Miner outpitched "Rasty" Wright in the game at Winchester, Friday, between the Mammoth and the Dodgers, and held the Winchester team to one hit. Paris defeated Winchester by a score of 2 to 1, breaking the tie for third place between the teams. Each pitcher struck out eleven men. Two errors in the ninth inning allowed Cicona to secure the winning run for Paris. The attendance was unusually large, a big crowd of Paris fans adding to the multitude. The batteries were: For Winchester, Wright and Frazier; for Paris, Miner and Macke. During the excitement incident to the close game a big Franklin car parked on the hillside in the rear of the grandstand got loose and ran amuck, crashing into the grand stand but no one was hurt. The crash caused a near panic, but did not interrupt the fans' enjoyment of the game.

The game between Paris and Mt. Sterling at the Paris League Park Sunday afternoon, was a one-sided affair, with Paris having the best of the argument. The Mammoth's sluggers batted Eggleton hard. The final score stood 9 to 1. Paris started the fun by putting three runs across home plate in the first inning adding two each in the fourth, sixth and seventh. Mt. Sterling's lone score came in the ninth inning. The game was witnessed by one of the largest crowds of the season. The hitting by Ellis, Nippert, Woods and Wills featured the game, which went for one hour and forty minutes. Maysville umpired. The batteries were: For Paris, Wills and Macke, for Mt. Sterling, Eggleton and Monk.

B. F. Goodman, lately manager of the Paris team in the Blue Grass League, has been appointed by President Thos. M. Russell as a member of the official umpiring staff. Mr. Goodman officiated in the Maysville-Cynthiana game, and at Lexington Sunday, in the Maysville-Lexington game. Mr. Goodman is thoroughly qualified for the position, and is very popular with the "fans" throughout the Bluegrass territory.

The Christians defeated the Presbyterian team Thursday afternoon, in the game on Hancock Field, in the Church League series, the final score being 20 to 4. The winners outplayed their opponents at all stages of the game.

The next game in the Church League series will be played on Hancock Field this (Tuesday) afternoon at 2:30 o'clock between the Methodist and Presbyterian teams. Come out and help boost the game.

RECRUITING FOR CAMP KNOX

Major Haig Shakerjean, of Louisville, an officer in the United States army, stationed at Camp Knox, near Stithton, Ky., was a business visitor in Paris, Friday. Major Shakerjean is a typical army officer, straight as an arrow, keen eyed and alert, and business from start to finish. He is touring the Bluegrass region in the interest of the Citizen's Military Training School at Camp Knox, which starts August 1.

While here Major Shakerjean interviewed quite a number of Paris boys and their parents on the subject. Craig Tucker, son of J. T. Tucker, of Paris, who, with Ralph Connell, son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Connell, took the training last year at Camp Knox, signed up again for this year. It is probable that a number of Paris boys will take advantage of the liberal offer of Uncle Sam for a summer outing at Camp Knox. The training course will be of great value to them in after life, making men of them in more ways than one. Both the physical and educational features of the training will be of great benefit to young men.

ICE CREAM SUPPER

The Young Married Women's Circle of the Paris Presbyterian church will give an ice cream supper, Thursday night, beginning at 7:30 o'clock, on the lawn at the home of Rev. T. S. Smylie, on Duncan avenue. All who come will be assured of an enjoyable evening.

LIGHTS EXTINGUISHED CAUSE DANCE TO ADJOURN

During the progress of the dance given Friday night at the Masonic Temple by the Bourbon Dancing Club, some mischievous or malicious person cut the wires furnishing current to the building. The dance was stopped while various makeshifts were resorted to for illumination purposes, all unavailing. Finally John M. Stuart, who was present, tendered the use of the Stuart & O'Brien warehouse, and the dancers adjourned to that place.

Complaint was made to the police Saturday morning regarding the disorder and noise on Main street, made presumably by those returning from the dance. Unnecessary use of motor horns, cat calls, yells, whistling, howls, throwing pop and cocoa bottles on the street, and other forms of disorder marked the break of dawn, much to the annoyance of citizens who were trying to sleep. There was no disorder whatever at the dance, but the complaints made after the dance were many and emphasized the fact more strongly that "there was something doing" in the noise-making line.

ADDRESS ON "TRACHOMA"

Miss Linda Neville, of Lexington, representing the National Red Cross, addressed the teachers of the Bourbon County Normal School on the work of the Red Cross in treatment of trachoma and the work of the Children's Hospital at Louisville. Treatment is given free to children who are blind, or whose eyesight is affected.

Several pictures were shown, illustrating what had been done to relieve the lame children of the State. As representative of the National Red Cross, Miss Neville will make another visit soon to Paris and will deliver an address to the teachers.

GAME WARDEN'S REPORT

During the month of May, Game Warden A. W. Bullock, in charge of this district, with headquarters in Paris, made seven arrests on charges of fish and game law violations. The cases were not tried during the month. Mr. Bullock is making a name as a terror to violators of the game laws, and is constantly on the alert, watchful and resourceful in the interests of fish and game conservation and preservation.

NEWS OF THE COURTS

In the County Court before Judge George Batterton the last will and testaments of Mrs. Georgia Fithian Webb and sister, Miss Nellie Fithian, who died about a week apart, were admitted to probate.

Mrs. Macie White Fithian was named and qualified as administratrix of both estates, furnishing bond in the sum of $18,500. The Court appointed Miss Janie Marsh, Wm. H. Webb and Buckner Woodford to appraise the estates.

James Delaney, a young white boy, was arrested Friday night, and lodged in jail, after having violated the parole granted him by County Judge Batterton a few days ago in the lower court, when he was found guilty of breaking into the L. & N. railroad station at Shawhan. The complaint on the second arrest was that Delaney had stolen a purse containing about $12 from a woman in Paris. Soon after being placed in jail Delaney is alleged to have torn a piece of lead pipe from the wall, flooding that part of the jail.

In the County Court Judge Geo. Batterton appointed Clay Sutherland as administrator of the estate of R. W. Hutchcraft, deceased. Mr. Sutherland accepted the trust and qualified by furnishing bond in a nominal sum, with his mother, Mrs. Faniebelle Sutherland, as surety.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

Leslie O'Neil, who has been to Camp Daniel Boone for five consecutive years, and has acted as a tent leader the past years, and winner of the gold triangle last year, will be one of the leaders in charge of the Bourbon county boys this year.

Secretary Harrison states that there will probably be three tents of boys from this county, who will attend Camp Daniel Boone this season. Boys desiring to go should register at once at the office of the Y. M. C. A.

The Campers Powwow at the Y. M. C. A. building is attracting a great deal of attention among the boys. With "wienies" and good stories on the program the boys are having a good time. The following boys have already registered for the camp: Jack Brennan, Billie Yerkes, Sol Feld, Eddie Merringer, Sam Margolen and T. J. Judy. One adult leader, at least, assisted by two older boys, will have charge of the Bourbon county boys.

In an advertisement of "The Kentucky Special," which the Louisville & Nashville will run to Latonia tomorrow, it is stated: "The purchase of round-trip tickets is advised, as it will be a convenience in returning." Most decidedly so!

The Elizabethtown News says: "We rather think that the Louisville baseball club should join the Bluegrass or the Kitty League." Huh! Is that so? They might do worse. The Bluegrass League is going strong just now, and is just about as good as the Louisville aggregation.

The Glasgow Times says: "The Governor of Kentucky is reported as being indisposed. If he were an ordinary mortal, he would be sick abed." Ahem! Seems to us we can recall that Ed was "indisposed" once or twice on his visits to Paris some years ago, and not "sick abed," either.

Attorney Robert Lee Murphy, of Lexington, has the courage of his convictions, to say the least. Mr. Murphy is convinced he can be a good candidate for Congress against J. Campbell Cantrill. We are of the opinion that the race between Murphy and Cantrill would be like a match race between Jim Strader's burro and Morvich or Exterminator.

Paris merchant says: "Manufacturers nowadays use the juice of apples for vinegar, extract the making of jelly from the pomace, and then sell the residue for cattle feed. The residue tastes like Western apples which Paris people buy because Kentucky with ample advantages of soil and climate, does not grow a surplus of apples."

As we all know, Frank M. (Hickory) Clay was foreman of the grand jury at this term of the Bourbon Circuit Court. Frank went home one day after a strenuous session in the jury room, and for relaxation, went out to milk the old family cow. Now, old Brindle was bothered with flies swarming her from all points of the compass. Naturally she resented it, and manipulated her tail to fight the pests away. One swish of the appendage caught Frank across the face, with a decidedly vicious slap. "Look here, you condemned old Bos!" yelled Frank, as he mopped his face. "You don't know who I am, do you? I'm foreman of the Grand Jury, and if you slap me with that condemned tail of yours again, I'll have you summoned before the grand jury, dash blank your dodged old soul! You just remember who I am, now!" And Frank's friends say it had the effect of frightened old Bossie, who kept as meek as a church mouse thereafter.

BOURBON PROUD OF THE SUMMER SCHOOL

The Bourbon County Summer School opened its second annual session Monday, June 19, and immediately got started into earnest work. The student body is a very attractive and earnest group of people, and constitute in the main ambitious, energetic and really leading teachers of Bourbon county.

There are a number of reasons for which I am proud of this summer school. In the first place, the school was so successful last year that teachers had every reason to believe that it would be even better this year. The State University, under whose auspices the school was conducted last year, reported to State Supt. Colvin that the summer school held last summer in Paris was the best county summer school held in Kentucky last year. This should be evidence enough to convince any teacher that the school will be even a greater success this year, having last year's experience on which to build. The second reason is that the Paris summer school has one of the very strongest faculties of any institution in Kentucky. Prof. J. W. Lancaster, the principal, is one of the outstanding school men in the State. His work at the head of the Millersburg school, his leadership among the teachers of this county since he has been among us, his successful handling of the summer school last summer, and in fact, his scholarship, experience and devotion to his profession ought to bring to this school practically 100 per cent attendance of the teachers of Bourbon county and adjoining territory, whose educational attainments are less than a standard college degree.

The fact that Prof. Clarence C. Freeman, of Transylvania College, is a member of this faculty ought to appeal very strongly to every teacher in this section of the State. Prof. Freeman is too great a scholar and too well known in Central Kentucky for me to attempt to add anything to what you already know of him. Personally I do not think that it is possible for the teachers of Kentucky to study under any man more capable of giving them helpful leadership than Prof. Freeman.

Prof. J. C. Jones, of the University of Kentucky, is one of the most brilliant of the younger teachers on the faculty at the University of Kentucky. He is a master of arts, graduate of Columbia University and had had unusual opportunities for the study of history and government.

Miss Edith Stivers everybody knows is a remarkably strong teacher of science and she is giving some of the best courses this summer that she has ever given.

Miss Nannie B. Clark, of the Millersburg schools, is giving work in primary supervision and penmanship. Miss Clark at one time was county supervisor in this county, and you all know how well she always does her work.

Miss Grace Cruikshank, a graduate of the University of Kentucky and a special graduate in physical education, and in plays and games.

The teachers who are missing this work will perhaps never know how much they have missed. But the tragedy of the situation is the loss that must come to the little country child's fall and winter when it is robbed of the pleasure that might be its if all teachers knew the things that Miss Cruikshank is teaching those in her class.

Prof. J. M. McVey, the county superintendent of Bourbon county schools, is working hard for the betterment of the schools, and of the teachers of this county. He is an able and conscientious leader and has already accomplished a great amount of good for the schools. It is his desire that Bourbon county teachers have better educational advantages than are afforded teachers in an other county of the State, and personally I think that he has given you a school right here in Paris not excelled in the State. This school is offering college and high school courses, primary supervision and all of the drill subjects, and in addition to these subjects you can get courses in both high school and college education. The State of Kentucky has appropriated the money to assist in carrying on these schools. If the teachers do not show themselves interested in this effort of the State to help them this appropriation from the State will be discontinued. Kentucky will always stand forty-fifth or lower among the States of the Union unless our teachers feel more keenly their duty to improve their scholarship. Last week in one school system in Kentucky thirty-six teachers were dismissed because they had failed to bring up their scholarship within the required time. Teachers are being dismissed all over the country for failing to improve their scholarship and this is as it should be.

Teachers may enter the Bourbon county summer school and still get full credit, and I do sincerely trust that the teachers of this section will avail themselves of this opportunity. I hope that the teachers of this section will stop and think of the seriousness of the situation, and realize what they owe to the profession and to the children of this county. I can not see how you can justify yourself in remaining out of school if it is physically possible for you to attend. The lives of children must suffer if the teachers of Kentucky do not improve their scholarship. The attendance at the Bourbon summer school should be doubled, and I trust that every teacher in Bourbon county will do his or her duty in this matter. This school, this faculty and the superintendent of schools of this county deserve a larger and better following than they had the past week.

Superintendent.

CITIZENS' MILITARY TRAINING CAMP AUGUST 1 TO 31, 1922

No young men from Bourbon county can afford to lose the opportunity to attend the Citizens' Military Training Camp at Camp Knox, Ky., from August 1 to 31, 1922. The Government offers a free vacation for one month to all young men aged 17 to 25 years, who have had little or no previous military training. At this camp military instruction will be given for not more than five hours per day, the afternoons being devoted to athletic games and sports of all kinds. Rifle Practice will be a big feature.

Applications for this camp will be received until June 30, 1922, so that all eligible young men still have the opportunity to attend.

Application blanks and information can be secured at the Y. M. C. A. and from Mr. C. C. Dawes, at First National Bank.

The camp has a strong endorsement from President Harding, and Governor Morrow has just issued a proclamation urging Kentucky young men to avail themselves of this privilege. All eligibles from Bourbon county are urged to apply as soon as possible.

CORROBORATION

Of Interest to Paris Readers

For months Paris citizens have seen in these columns enthusiastic praise of Doan's Kidney Pills by Paris residents. Would these prominent people recommend a remedy that had not proven reliable? Would they confirm their statements after years had elapsed if personal experience had not shown the remedy to be worthy of endorsement? The following statement should carry conviction to the mind of every Paris reader.

Mrs. John Mastin, 1439 High street, Paris, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills with good results. I had a dull aching across the small of my back and my kidneys acted irregularly. The use of Doan's Kidney Pills rid me of these complaints and I have faith enough in them that should I ever need a kidney remedy again I would certainly use Doan's Kidney Pills."

Mrs. Mastin gave the above statement November 9, 1916, and on November 13, 1920, she added: "I still have the same good opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills as when I endorsed them before. I use them occasionally when I require a kidney tonic and they never fail to do me good."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Mastin had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. (adv)

IN THE GOOD OLD SUMMER TIME

This year summer heat beat the barrier. Summer enters to find its attendants already present.

There is one thing about the arrival of summer. There is nothing we can do about it. One can rave about the heat, but the sun shines all the brighter. He can swat mosquitoes but the tribe increases. He can curse the mercury but the silver thread defies him.

About the only thing that those who dislike the hot season can do is to observe the conventional don'ts and try to forget it.

Either the seasons were created with a purpose or evolved into their present status without any excuse whatever. But here they are. Grumbling won't help matters.

Let us rather join in welcoming the days when we can "hear the corn growing," when the grain is given its golden crest, when the vacation draws closer, when the river beckons and the brevity of the bathing suit doesn't matter, when "the days of real sport" are with us, the meadows are in bloom and the birds make music all the day.

Col. Brookhart spent only $453.98 in his successful Senatorial campaign in Iowa. Evidently he is a close student of political economy.

MURPHY TO OPPOSE CANTRILL FOR CONGRESS

Opposition to J. Campbell Cantrill, Congressman from the Seventh district and candidate for the renomination on the Democratic ticket developed when R. E. L. Murphy, Lexington attorney and former service man filed notice with the Secretary of State at Frankfort, Friday, that he would be a candidate for the nomination.

Mr. Cantrill filed his notification papers sometime ago. He has been a member of Congress from this district for the past fourteen years. Attorney Murphy two years ago made the race for the nomination against Mr. Cantrill and was decisively defeated, receiving an almost negligible vote.

Mr. Murphy stated he would make his campaign against the Esch-Cummings act, as a supporter of a soldier bonus, for equal consideration of war profiteers, legislation favorable to unions and for the release of all former soldiers serving sentences for military offenses.

KENTUCKY GETS BIG ROAD FUND

Federal aid to the amount of $944,786 has been apportioned Kentucky for road construction during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1923. It was announced by the Bureau of Public Roads, Department of Agriculture.

Twenty other States have larger apportionment than Kentucky, the largest being Texas, which will receive $2,950,115.

A total of $50,000,000 is authorized for this purpose for the fiscal year beginning July 1, while $65,000,000 and $75,000,000 are authorized for each of the succeeding years. The sum of $6,500,000 also is authorized for forest roads for 1923 and 1924.

THREE MEMBERS OF THIS FAMILY ARE BENEFITED

Mrs. Mary Shannon So Wonderfully Restored By Tanlac Two Others In Family Also Take It With Fine Results.

"Tanlac proved so wonderful in my case that two of my family are now taking it, with splendid results, and we all just think it's the greatest medicine ever made," declared Mrs. Mary Shannon, highly respected resident of 234 Ludlow street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

"I suffered for over two years with an awful case of stomach trouble, and the indigestion and bloating were almost unbearable. After eating I had dreadful pains and a terrible depressing feeling in my stomach, and at night was so restless I couldn't sleep well. I also had complications that required an operation and it left me so weak and run down that I could hardly get about and my condition seemed hopeless.

"However, it didn't take Tanlac long to put an end to my troubles and now I have gained nine pounds in weight, am feeling just fine. I owe my good health entirely to Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists. (adv)

BUSY WEEK CLOSED FOR PLAY-GROUNDS

The playgrounds have closed a very busy week. On each one a marshmallow roast and story telling contest was held around a huge bonfire. The children are starting their night activities in spite of the fact that they have no light. Two baseball games have been played and Wilson playgrounds has one victory and the Brennan one.

The girls are organizing and will soon be ready to play. A pennant will be given to the victorious girl's team at the end of the season.

The big event for this week will be the annual Doll Show. Some interesting dolls have already been entered. Mrs. James Lyons, of Lexington, will show her dolls that were made by the Indians and Eskimos. These are very unique and have taken premiums in several other doll shows. Mrs. Brown has a doll that is eighty-three with its original costume, and Mrs. Benghe has entered a Swiss doll cradle, two inches, containing a jointed doll with hand-made dress. This contest is open to all children and adults of Paris and vicinity. The children will dress as grown-ups and bring their dolls. A handsome prize will be given to the child having the best display. This includes the doll and the child's costume. The kindergarten will exhibit their hand work done during the first three weeks and the prizes for each playground will be awarded. Don't forget the date, Friday, June 30. Be sure and come, bring your dolls, and tell all your friends to bring theirs.

ARMY OFFICER IN CROSS COUNTRY HIKE

Covered with the marks of travel and bronzed by exposure to the sun and wind, Lieut. Harry DeWitt, U. S. A. of Oklahoma, was in Paris, Friday. Lieut. DeWitt was en route from Portland, Oregon, on a cross-country hike.

Lieut. DeWitt is walking the entire distance. He is an overseas veteran and wears a Victory Medal. He is one of the four U. S. Army officers who started from the four points of the compass on May 12, to make the cross-country hike for experimental purposes, mainly to determine the endurance powers of the modern soldier.

Lieut. DeWitt was a caller at THE NEWS office, where he was given a letter attesting his presence in Paris and that he was fully meeting the requirements of the test. This is in the nature of a verification report required by the Government from day to day. Lieut. DeWitt also called on Mayor January and was given official documents telling of his visit here.

PROMINENT JOURNALIST TO SPEAK AT MEETING

Prof. M. V. Atwood, of Cornell University, has accepted an invitation from Prof. Enoch Grehan, of the Department of Journalism of the University of Kentucky, to deliver an address before the annual convention of the Kentucky Press Association on June 30 at Crab Orchard Springs, announced J. C. Alcock, secretary.

Professor Atwood will speak on "Present Tendencies in the Country Newspaper Field." He will also judge the papers entered in the newspaper contest and award the prizes offered by Professor Grehan. Professor Atwood is engaged in extension work for country newspapers and has a national reputation.

Do Unto Us as You Would Have Others Do Unto You

Suppose after months of hard labor and expense, plowing, planting and cultivating, you had raised a nice garden, with bright prospects for making good money, but as soon as your vegetables and fruits were ripe and ready for market some fellow would come along daily and load his wagon and sell the stuff you raised, his only excuse being that there was no law to prevent him from doing so—would you think him perfectly just in doing so, or would you believe him unreasonable and unfair? Would you think it fair for the public to encourage the fellow by patronizing him after they knew all the facts in your case? Of course, you would not, and nobody else would uphold such dirty work.

Now, then, this is exactly what we are up against. After several months of faithful service to the public, making many trips at a loss to us, and remember, after our competitor, as well as a second party, ran over this route for several weeks, but gave it up as a failure. WE stuck to the job and finally put our business upon a paying basis. Not until then comes along our competitor with his red bus to take away the fruits of our labor by running a few minutes ahead of our schedule. It would be bad enough if he would at least give the public double service by running one or two hours between our schedule, his sole aim seems to be "To drive us off the line."

Do you believe he is doing right? Should you or any one else encourage him by riding on his bus? Put yourself in our place, and you will have the right answer. Of course, there is no law by which to reach our case, but God has given every man a conscience by which to know right from wrong. Let this unwritten law guide you to stand for principle and patronize our Yellow Bus. You can well afford to let the Red Bus pass and wait a few minutes for ours, as we feel it our duty to stick to our advertised schedule and never disappoint our patrons by leaving ahead of time.

We thank our friends and patrons who have stood by us so nobly and will always prove our appreciation by giving you the best service possible.

Yours for a Square Deal.

BOURBON ATTORNEYS WIN IN APPELLATE COURT

At Frankfort the Court of Appeals affirmed the judgment of the Woodford Circuit Court, in three cases in which local attorneys, Robert C. Talbott and Virgil Chapman, of Paris and Lexington, were interested and representing the plaintiffs.

The cases were those of Rogers' administrator vs. Director-General of the C. & O. railway, for $20,000, Bush's administrator against same, for $5,000, and Davis against the same, for $5,000. Verdicts for these amounts were secured in the lower court, but an appeal was taken to the higher court, with the above result. With interest added the C. & O. will be compelled to pay out about $35,000 in the three cases.

GARAGE CHANGES OWNERS

Chas. P. Mann, of the Paris Realty Co., has closed a deal disposing of the Big Four Motor Co., their garage business, at the corner of Eighth and High streets, consisting of a number of cars, stock and supplies and shop equipment to Walter Kenney, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kenney, of near Paris.

The purchasers also secured a long-term lease on the building, taking possession of the plant and building Friday. Mr. Kenney is a progressive young business man, and will make a success of his new venture. Mr. Mann will devote his entire time to his real estate business.

WINNER OF THE LEADER STORE CONTEST

The popularity contest inaugurated by The Leader Store several months ago closed recently with an unusually large vote garnered by the several contestants. Votes came in from all parts of this and surrounding counties requiring the services of several clerks in the final tallying.

Miss Mary Katherine Connelly, daughter of Mrs. John McGinley, of Paris, was the successful contestant, having a total of 153,171 votes cast in her favor. The prize, a handsome $25 silk dress, was awarded to Miss Connelly. The second prize went to Miss Elizabeth Schwartz. The totals of the votes cast for all the contestants was not available, having been "scrapped" at the conclusion of the contest.

COTTINGHAM TRANSFERRED

Wayne Cottingham, formerly of Paris, lately of The Lexington Leader staff, and now connected with the Associated Press has been transferred from the Chicago office to Louisville, where he will be night editor for the Associated Press. Mr. Cottingham requested the transfer to enable him to be nearer his aged father, Mr. A. W. Cottingham, who is seriously ill at his home in Paris. Mr. Cottingham visited his parents Saturday and Sunday. He was sent to Chicago several months ago, and is making rapid advances in his profession, upon which THE NEWS congratulates him with a right hearty good will.

ABANDONED CAR FOUND

The police were informed Saturday night that an abandoned car had been found in the alley adjoining the residences of Duncan Bell and Miss Maria Tipton, on High street. The license tag had been removed and the car showed evidence of having been driven a considerable distance. The car was taken to a local garage, where it was stated that it belonged to a Paris man. The car was afterward called for by the owner, who stated that he had no idea when it had been taken, or how, or by whom, and that it really did not matter, as he was too glad to get it back to prosecute inquiries.

ADJOURNED COUNCIL MEETING

When Mayor E. B. January called the City Council to order Thursday night at the regular semi-monthly meeting, only two members, B. J. Santen and Curtis Henry, answered the roll-call. The meeting was adjourned until to-morrow (Wednesday) night, when it is hoped a sufficient number of the members will be present to form a quorum, and transact the business that may come before them.

DEFEAT BILL PROHIBITING RACE ODD PUBLICATION

A bill introduced in the Louisiana Senate by Senator Johnson, of Washington parish, to prohibit the publication by newspapers of information concerning odds on horse races, form charts, etc., was defeated by a vote of 20 to 18. The bill failed to pass the Senate, and was brought up again on a motion to reconsider.

Fun Specialist Extraordinary at Redpath Chautauqua

One of the high spots of the coming Redpath Chautauqua will be the appearance, on the last night, of Jess Pugh, widely-known fun specialist extraordinary.

Jess Pugh is the originator and widely-known interpreter of the uproarious comedy sketch, "The Snuff Stricken Reader," which has generated fun in countless communities throughout the country. It has come to be a classic in character interpretation and impersonation comedy.

"The Snuff Stricken Reader" will be on Mr. Pugh's Chautauqua program this season, together with other rollicking comedy sketches, impersonations, dialect numbers and a sprinkling of serious interpretations.

Those who hear Jess Pugh will hear one of the most popular of the Lyceum and Chautauqua entertainers of today.

CHAUTAUQUA WEEK HERE

SULPHUR DUSTED ON CLOTHING PREVENTS CHIGGER ATTACK

Rare days in June, July and August, tempt nature lovers into the woods and fields and by the sides of babbling brooks. Frequently they return to undergo several days of acute torment due to attacks of chiggers, the tiny mites whose larvae attach themselves to the skin in any exposed spot.

The bureau of Entomology of the United States Department of Agriculture has made a careful study of the habits of chiggers and methods of control, and suggests two ways of reducing the discomfort caused by chiggers.

The first step is to clothe the feet and ankles properly when going into the woods where chiggers are likely to occur, by wearing heavy high-topped boots instead of low shoes, thick stockings or even spiral puttees. The second method is to apply repellents either directly on the skin or on the hose and undergarments before starting out for a "hike" or a picnic. Flowers of sulphur is ordinarily used for this purpose. A hot bath with a thick lather of soap taken immediately after returning from an outing often kills chigger larvae on the body.

Palliatives, such as sulphur ointment, alcohol, ammonia, cooking soda, dilute solution of iodine, or camphor are of use chiefly because of their acaricide or mite-killing action, or because of their antiseptic quality, or for both reasons.

THE HOUSE AND THE PRESIDENT

With proper respect for the opinions of Democrats who think that the Democratic party would be in a better position for 1924 if it cut down the Republican majority in House of Representatives this fall than it would be if the Democrats elected a majority of the House, we beg to differ and to offer the following facts in connection with precedent:

The first President of the United States elected by the Democrats following the Civil War was Samuel J. Tilden, 1876; we did not seat him but we elected him. In 1874, the Democrats carried the House.

The next Democratic President was Grover Cleveland in 1884. In 1882 the Democrats carried the House.

The next Democratic President was Grover Cleveland in 1892. In 1890 the Democrats carried the House.

The next Democratic President was Woodrow Wilson in 1912. In 1910 the Democrats carried the House.

The next Democratic President was Woodrow Wilson in 1916. In 1914 the Democrats carried the House, as they did in 1912.

The only time the precedent was broken was in 1888 when Harrison was elected against Cleveland who was running the second time. The Democrats carried the House in 1886, and although they lost out in the presidential election in 1888, Cleveland had a majority of the popular vote that year. So, in a manner of speaking, the precedent was only partly broken.

It was a good thing for the Democratic party to have the House in 1874, 1882, 1890, 1910 and 1914, and it will be equally good, in our opinion, to have the House in 1922.

And remember that all the signs this year say: "This is a Democratic Year."

THE NEGRO PROBLEM UP AGAIN

It is not quite sixty years since the Emancipation Proclamation was signed. Well within the lifetime of many now living the negro race was practically totally ignorant, its activities confined entirely to day labor in the fields, its ideals represented by a place to sleep and something to eat, its ambitions nothing beyond creature comfort.

In the Nation's Capital the seventh annual negro race congress has just come to an end. This congress, organized in September, 1916, has for its main purpose the uplifting of the colored race. Through its channels have been spread doctrines and ideals for the inspiration of the colored people. Prominent negro educators, lawyers, physicians, and business men attended. Questions affecting the social, economical, civic, intellectual and moral life of the colored race were discussed and a declaration of principles for the American negro adopted. Prof. Kelly Miller, of Harvard University, chairman of the commission which drafted the principles, said that it is the aim of the congress to make them the aims and ideals of the race.

Is it not a wonderful record for less than sixty years? Is it not a great tribute to the means which has raised a race, but a few hundred years removed from African savagery and but fifty-nine from slavery, to a position in which it can hold a race congress, formulate ideals, look with pride upon several universities, which can muster in its ranks an educator a President was proud to entertain, a poet read by all the world, and solid citizens of worth and property?

If ever a country had a race problem on its hands, these United States had it after Appomattox. If ever education had a triumph, it is in the work the schools have done in promoting the welfare of the negro race, and thus the welfare of all Americans, who have found in the negro school, the negro college, the negro university, the means for making those who were slaves and chattels, useful citizens.

THE PARTNERSHIP SPIRIT

The thing that has broken up many farm homes has been lack of partnership between the farmer and his boys. Father might call the calf the property of his boy, but when the calf was sold father took the cash. The boys under such conditions grew up to feel that they had no share in the farm.

The astute farmer makes his boy his partner from the day he is old enough to hold and operate garden tools or feed any farm animal. He gives that boy something of his very own, from which he can reap his own personal reward. As that boy grows up his share of the farm enterprise constantly increases. That boy will not usually go off anywhere else.

There Was a Reason.

Jimmy was visiting his aunt, who was a good cook, and he enjoyed every meal. One day after an unusually good dinner he glanced at his three cousins, who were fat and rosy, and said: "I know now why you got such fat kids."

A spiritualist says there are no "flappers" in heaven. If that is true, lots of young men will lose their desire to go there.

WHISKAWAY WINNER IN BIG $50,000 RACE

Whiskaway, Harry Payne Whitney's great colt, which a week ago gave Morvich the only defeat of his racing career repeated the triumph Saturday, when he swept past the wire, winner of the $50,000 Special Latonia race for three-year-olds before a record-breaking crowd of 50,000 persons.

The chestnut son of Whiskbroom II defeated the best field the Nation could send against him in what probably was the greatest race for three-year-olds staged in a decade.

Will Perkin's Thibodeaux, a rank outsider in the betting, and a Kentucky-bred horse, finished second in a driving finish with Whiskaway, crossing the wire a half length behind the winner. Morvich was third, ten lengths behind Whiskaway. Pillory, winner of the $50,000 Preakness stakes, was fourth and Deadlock was fifth. The mile and a quarter was run in 2:02 4-5, which was within one-fifth of a second of the track record.

Whiskaway, winner of the Kentucky Special at Latonia Saturday, is another of the great thoroughbreds which has pranced the fields of the Bluegrass near Lexington. Inaugural, the dam of Whiskaway, was at the farm of Harry Payne Whitney on the Paris road, once a part of Elmendorf, when Whiskaway was foaled. Kentucky bred horses were represented in the Special by Whiskaway, Deadlock and Thibodeaux.

A SLOW BEGINNER

"Sands of Pleasure moved up with a rush after being far out of it for the first half mile and wore down Tomahoi in the last sixteenth."

Thus the race chart repeats what has come to be an old story to turf patrons who know the horses as individuals rather than as mere names and numbers. Tomahoi happened to be the victim in this instance. But better horses have been surprised and charged by the final onrush of the old campaigner.

The list of the slow beginners among the racers is extensive. Many steeds able to close with a rush are unable to get into winning stride until the race is nearly over. Then comes what the turf writers sometimes call the "belated rattle," the term being used when the spurt is just short of overtaking the leader.

The slow beginner gives his backers great concern as he lags at the barrier and trails his field. The experienced players learn to expect the development of great speed near the finish line, but it is a real strain on a weak heart to await the signs of increased velocity. However, the slow beginner is more of a horseman's horse than is the front runner. This latter type, as exemplified by Refugee II and Flip, leap away at the rise of the barrier. They quickly get a lead of a dozen lengths and the novices in the stand are convinced that the race is over. But the front runners seldom hold their advantage. Slowly but surely the gap closes and the steadier horses come on relentlessly.

The front runner as a rule is faint-hearted. He runs his race if no severe opposition is met, but will quit when collared. The ideal racer gets away promptly and runs an even race, clicking along at a rate calculated to wear down the front runners and ward off the terrific attack of the slow beginners. Sands of Pleasure could not hope to beat Firebrand or Exterminator, but in lesser company he is always worth consideration.

Incidentally, the old horse must have a world of courage and determination. He has won many an apparently hopeless contest and it must give him a glimpse of horse heaven to win in the last few lunging strides.

THE BOY ON THE BURNING DECK

Senator McCumber, Chairman of the Finance Committee, is the Casablanca of the Senate. The hot-shot of the Republican and Independent press as well as the explosive shells of the wicked Democratic newspapers have set fire to the deck which is burning beneath his feet, but Senator McCumber refuses to desert, and with his coat-tails afire hurls back a deft at the assailants of the Profiteers' Tariff bill, who he conceives to be only the propagandists of the department stores. Here are the exact words of Casablanca McCumber:

"Possibly before we get through we will see what is back of the papers that are railing against this tariff bill. I will say to the Senator most candidly that I do not believe the committee is going to be stampeded by anything which comes from a press that represents a propaganda that is making from a thousand to three thousand, percent upon its imports, and that possibly will be presented to the American people before we get through."

Healthy Calling.

Of eight English clergymen whose deaths were recorded in one week a short time ago, the ages aggregated 590 years, the oldest being ninety-two and the youngest fifty-seven, writes a correspondent. This high average of just under seventy-four years is either an uncommon record or attests the longevity of the "cloth."

TRIBUTE TO MEMORY OF DR. J. N. McCORMACK

Resolutions adopted by the American Medical Association on the death of Dr. J. N. McCormack, who died May 4, still in harness after more than forty years of service to Kentucky, first as a member and later as head of its State Board of Health, have been received in Louisville.

The resolutions were drawn up by Dr. E. Eliot Harris, of New York City, Dr. Holman Taylor, of Fort Worth, Texas, Dr. D. E. Sullivan, of South Norwalk, Conn., and Dr. L. S. McMurry, of this city. After declaring that the entire medical profession of America is indebted to Dr. McCormack for his work as chairman of the Committee on Reorganization of the American Medical Association, the resolution says of his services to Kentucky:

"Dr. McCormack formulated and established a model law for the protection of the health and welfare of the people of his native State of Kentucky. Moreover, as its executive he secured the enforcement of these laws and perfected an organization of every county.

"For forty years he gave his time and labor by day and by night to protecting the people from disease and promoting the organization and efficiency of the medical profession. His vision was clear, his ability was great, his ideals were high, and he accomplished a full lifetime of achievement."

"He died full of years and of honors. His work remains and will go on in increasing circles in the years to come."

RADIO WILL BE BLESSING TO THE BLIND

Radio and the broadcasting of news and concert music through the air, was declared to be a God-send to blind persons by Charles E. Comstock, of Springfield, Illinois, sightless from infancy, who heads the division for the visitation of adult blind, connected with the State Department of Public Welfare.

"The use of radio equipment by blind persons," Mr. Comstock said, "is undoubtedly the greatest blessing and comfort occurring in this era." He declared that this new invention makes it possible for sightless persons to receive news daily without having it read to them; that the State now has paid readers at the School for the Blind at Jacksonville and the Industrial Home for the Blind in Chicago.

"With the installation of radio equipment," Mr. Comstock said, "their services can be dispensed with. And not only can the blind man now have the advantage of current news, but he can listen to concerts and lectures. I have already equipped my home with radio and am receiving news direct from a central station in Chicago, which makes a specialty of sending out bulletins for blind persons. For the past several evenings I have been listening to concerts given in Detroit."

Use of radio in the State School at Jacksonville and the Industrial Home in Chicago, is being contemplated, according to announcement by Judge S. H. Jenkins, director of the State Department of Public Welfare.

WEST VIRGINIA CHICKEN LAYS SEVEN-INCH EGG

An egg measuring 7 inches in length and 6½ inches in circumference has been laid by a hen belonging to D. C. Baker, of Winfield, West Va. The egg has two separate yolks in it. The same hen laid an egg some time ago that had a double yolk and was unusually large. Neighbors from all over the Winfield district have called at the Baker home to view this freak egg.

HIS MISTAKE

(Cincinnati Times-Star)

The editor of a magazine which is published by a New York bus company offers a prize each month for the best story turned in by an employee of the company on any topic pertaining to company affairs. Here is one which won this month:

"One seat on top and one inside," shouted a bus conductor at a stopping place.

"Sure, now, you wouldn't be after separatin' a daughter from her mother," said the elder of two women on the sidewalk.

"Right ye are, I would not," said the conductor, starting the bus. "I did that once, an' I've been regrettin' it ever since."

THE REAL TEST OF HERO STUFF

When Alvin York, the war's greatest hero, was being passed around from one "affair" to another and being overwhelmed with attention and adulation many people feared that there might be enough of flattery and flummery to turn his head and that he might be spoiled, as so many men have been, by too much notoriety.

It is good to know that he came through all right. For the man who could turn down all sorts of big money offers to appear in vaudeville and the movies, and go back home to found a school for his own people is all right. Alvin York is more a hero to-day than ever before. For he has demonstrated that he has splendid unselfishness and steadfast common sense as well as superb courage. His community, his State and his Nation do well to be proud of him.

THE BOURBON NEWS.

"HISTORIC MILESTONES"

(Lexington Herald)
Youth's Companion, the Boston weekly (one of whose editors for many years was a Lexingtonian, T. H. Clay), is presenting a series of pictures on its cover-page under the title "Historic Milestones." Its aim is to have each State represented, sooner or later, and it is asking the superintendents of public instruction and the State historical societies for suggestions as to the most dramatic and historically interesting event in the development of their several States.

What is the event of most historic moment in Kentucky's history? The fight at Boonesboro, the battle of the Blue Licks, the defense of Bryan's Station are the events which first occur to us, probably because they occurred in our vicinity. There are numerous others which will present themselves to those familiar with Kentucky's history.

Some event occurring later, after Kentucky became a State, might be more dramatic than those in the days of Daniel Boone, George Rogers Clark, the Logans and other pioneers.

The period of the Civil War should not be overlooked, although few of its battles were fought on Kentucky soil. The State sent large numbers of volunteers to the war of 1812 and the Mexican War, and they took a glorious part therein, but their services to the country were rendered in other States than Kentucky.

Some political event, such as the adoption of the Kentucky Resolutions of 1798, or the attempt to oust the Court of Appeals by a "ripper bill" in the legislature because of the Court's decision against repudiation, might be considered of more historic interest than the more dramatic occurrences of the pioneer days.

These are some random suggestions. The historians, historical societies and students in Kentucky should begin scratching their heads.

"ENCHANTMENT"

(A Rhymed Review by Rose Pelwick in N. Y. Globe, Nov. 2, 1921)

Ethel was a flapper, and she wined a wicked lash,
She vamped like Cleopatra and she hit it high on dash;
She realized her power and it made her wondrous wise,
She lured the men to rapture with the way she rolled her eyes.

She shocked her patient mother; thought her parents were passe,
But Dad got sore and sorer, for he couldn't see her way;
He planned that he would tame her for he thought her wild enough,
And asked a handsome actor, as a cure, to treat her rough.

To lead her on to love him, and then spurn with feeling terse;
The plan worked as per schedule, and she fell, but he fell worse.
They met at teas and dances, and she flapped away his heart—
He fell for her enchantment, and he couldn't play the part.

They played the "Sleeping Beauty" and he found he loved her true,
And when he had to wake her—well, what could the fellow do?
The picture's most enjoyable and of the clever stamp,
With Marion Davies leading as the pretty baby vamp.

EASY MATTER TO SAY "THANK YOU"

When the telephone operator has been helping one through a difficult toll connection and the conversation successfully concluded, it makes a favorable impression to call her up and say that you are much obliged for all her trouble—after having first ascertained that she is in condition to stand the shock.

Now the usual procedure in such a case is to take good-luck for granted as our due, and to kick like steers when luck is bad. This is the worst kind of sportsmanship. It results, when ill luck does come, in feeling and behaving as if we were monstrously abused and persecuted; when, by dwelling on the small morsels of satisfaction, which come with every day and every hour, it is possible to store up enough serene temper to tide over the rainy days.

To call up the operator and say we appreciate the courtesy shown is, first of all, good manners. After that, it is something more. It is an investment which pays inner dividends of a coin that does not tarnish.—Boston Globe.

For Violin Backs.

When any figure appears on a smooth surface as though in relief, it is called, mottle, says the American Forestry Magazine. The fiddle-back mottle appears a series of hills and valleys and derives its name from the common use of maple with such figure in making the backs of violins.

Nobody should object to Germany and Russia making a treaty if either of them is gullible enough to trust the other.

Your Fourth of July Needs Can Be Satisfactorily Supplied

Bring the Family—
It Surely Will Pay You

One hundred years before this store came into existence, our forefathers established on this continent, a free nation, a glorious republic, a country that we all hold dear in our hearts.

In 1877, we established Mabley's, determined to make it a store in which the public would have confidence, a store for the people.

We have succeeded. Many thousands daily come here in full confidence to supply their needs.

For the "Fourth" ample provisions have been made to supply your needs. If you are coming to Cincinnati this week

DEATHS

Life Is But A Brief Span, A Debt That All Must Pay

BRINDLEY

Information was received here last week of the death in New York City of Lieutenant Nicholas Cooper, Brindley, aged fifty-five, son of Benjamin Brindley, formerly of Bourbon county. For twenty-six years he served as police officer on the New York City force. He was unmarried and is survived by father, one brother, Ellis Brindley, and one sister, Miss Lucy G. Brindley. Lieut. Brindley was a nephew of Mrs. Mary Hibler, and a cousin of Bishop and Harvey Hibler, of Paris.

CURRENT

Roger Hanson Current, aged thirty-nine, superintendent of machinery at the Bourbon county quarry, whose skull was fractured by an accident occurring at the plant Thursday morning, died at a late hour that night at the Massie Memorial Hospital.

Mr. Current was a son of Mrs. Nannie Current and the late Wm. Current, of near Kiserston. Besides his mother, he is survived by his widow Mrs. Mary Fry Current, daughter of James N. Fry, of Bourbon county, and five sisters: Mrs. Robert Megibben, of Cynthiana, Mrs. Harry B. Larkin, of Lair, Mrs. Ernest Fry, of Paris, Mrs. Joe H. Ewalt, of Kiserston, and Mrs. Mason Forsyth, of near Paris.

The funeral was held Saturday afternoon, at three o'clock, with services conducted at the grave in the Paris Cemetery by Rev. T. S. Smylie, pastor of the Paris Presbyterian church. The pall-bearers were: Ernest Fry, Wm. Fry, Louis Fry, Emmett Fry and Miller Kiser.

DEMOCRATS, REMEMBER TO REGISTER JULY 10-11

All Democrats should bear in mind that July 10 and 11 will be registration days and that every Democrat in every precinct in Bourbon county will have to register in order to vote in the future. If you fail to register you will lose your vote.

Democrats are urged to begin now to advertise this important matter. Every time you meet a Democrat remind him of the two days. Polls will be open in each precinct in the county just the same as on election day. When you register once you do not have to register again unless you move from the precinct. Don't forget this.

Everybody has heard of the man without a country, but Russia seems to be the country without a man.

Lewis B. Mayer Presents

TUESDAY

"THE CHILD THOU GAVEST ME"

Starring BARBARA CASTLETON and WILLIAM DESMOND

A wife who goes into marriage with a lie on her lips; a husband who finds that lie and waits; a friend who had loved the woman once—still loved her, some day—and tried to bring happiness to a home bereft of it. They and the child sweep to a climax of drama, surprise and absolute amazement. You've seen such characters in other stories—but never before in one so amazing as this.

Also "AIN'T LOVE GRAND," a Fox Comedy, and MUTT AND JEFF CARTOON

MATRIMONIAL

A Record of Dan Cupid's Doings As The Days Go By

—Charles S. Gregg, 42, of Dayton, Ohio, and Miss Goldie B. Langdon, 26, of Chesapeake, Ohio, came to Paris yesterday and secured a marriage license from the office of County Clerk Pearce Paton.

—The following announcements have been issued:

"Mrs. P. E. Chrisp announces the marriage of her daughter, Jessie Chrisp, to Mr. Reuben Summers Letton, Tuesday, June twentieth, nineteen hundred and twenty-two, Covington, Kentucky." "At Home, Main street, Millersburg, Kentucky."

RUBBATHEN—CLARK

—Mrs. William Clark, of Lexington, announces the marriage of her daughter, Miss Bess Clark, to Mr. W. A. Rubbathen, both of Lexington.

ton. The marriage was solemnized at Versailles on May 15, Rev. J. W. Gardiner, of the Methodist church, of Versailles, officiating.

Mr. Rubbathen is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Rubbathen, of Lexington, and a brother of John E. Rubbathen, Jr., for a long time linotype operator for the Kentuckian-Citizen in Paris. Mr. and Mrs. Rubbathen will make their home at 365 Walnut street, Lexington.

JUNCTION CITY BANK ESTIMATES $30,000 LOSS

The board of directors of the First State Bank, of Junction City, of which former Parisian Louis Kriener is cashier, in connection with State Banking Commissioner James Lewis, of Frankfort, and Argus Francis, examiner now in charge of the bank, have determined that the losses of the bank are approximately $30,000, with a capital stock and surplus of $20,000. The directors and Commissioner Lewis in the light of these losses levied an assessment of one hundred per cent. on all stock holders and Mr. J. Harris Baughman, of Danville, was appointed special Banking Commissioner and Hon. Nelson D. Rodes was appointed attorney to wind up the affairs of the bank. Tentative arrangements have been completed whereby all depositors who file claims and prove same may borrow fifty per cent of their deposits from the Boyle Bank and Trust Company, of Danville, or from J. Harris Baughman, the special Banking Commissioner.

REAL ESTATE DEALS

Dr. D. S. Henry, of Paris, recently conducted a successful sale of building lots at Berea, when fifty lots and a modern frame bungalow were disposed of at satisfactory prices. Dr. Henry retained over a hundred choice lots, and is completing several frame bungalows, which will be placed on the market at an early date.

SPEARS MILLS ITEMS

—Edgar Wagoner, of Cynthiana, was a guest Saturday and Sunday of Willie D. Wagoner.

—Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Harney and the latter's mother, Mrs. Thos. Day, and sons, Howard and Sterling Day, visited friends and relatives in Winchester, Sunday.

—The Spears Mill baseball team defeated the Escondido team Saturday afternoon by a big score, taking the third game of the series, which resulted in two victories for the local team.

—Rev. Turner, pastor of the Baptist church, preached two excellent sermons Sunday to large crowds.

—Don't forget the pie supper Thursday night. If you want to have a real good old-fashioned time, come to the pie supper. "It will be there for you."
